

Each NCA Student is expected to pursue:

A Passion for God – a love for Him and a desire to know Him more

- By seeking Him in prayer and the Word
- By covenanting to glorify Him in my life
- By attending a local, evangelical, Bible-believing church weekly

A Compassion for People – gracious speech and actions, reflecting a heart of love and mercy

- By respecting others in thought and word
- By encouraging and praying for my classmates, teachers and school staff
- By leading through example within the school community
- By practicing purity in thought, word, and deed as it relates to personal thoughts, speech and dress
- By serving others in school, in my community and around the world

The principles expressed in the School's Statement of Faith, Philosophy of Christian Education, and in the policies stated in the Family Handbook

- By bringing an attitude of humility and a desire to learn and grow
- By dressing and generally conducting oneself with modesty and purity
- By treating the building, furniture and educational resources with care and respect
- By participating in all required school activities wholeheartedly and in harmony with peers and with those in authority
- By handling disputes with a Christ-like attitude and a desire for resolution
- By developing personal responsibility and integrity as related to purity in thought, word, deed and dress.

Excellence in Academics

- By arriving at class on time and prepared to work
- By completing all assigned work in a careful and timely manner
- By approaching instructors with respect and my full attention
- By collaborating with classmates with a positive attitude and my best effort
- By bringing a strong work ethic to projects and activities in and out of the classroom
- By accepting feedback and correction with respectful consideration and a willingness to progress
